PUBLIC INFORMATION

Aggravated Robbery

On 09-21-2015, an unknown black male robbed a banking establishment in Georgetown, TX.

Since 12/02/2011, the same suspect has robbed 27 other locations in Temple, Killeen, Belton, Round Rock, Harker Heights, and Georgetown. He has robbed a wide variety of business types to include retail stores, restaurants, convenience stores, grocery stores and banks.

The suspect watches the business and knows opening times, number of employees, and deliveries. The suspect likes to hide behind dumpsters, in alleys, or behind fences waiting for employees opening the business.

Business managers should encourage their employees to change up standard routines, be aware of their surroundings and call 911 immediately if they see anything suspicious.
